Evaluating Your Men's Team Ministry

1. Remember our goal: Practice the love of Christ towards people with long term needs so our churches can say, "There is no needy person among us."
2. We define the practice of the love of Christ as containing three elements:
 - a Identifying with someone
 - b Committing to them
 - c Sacrificing for them
3. Survey your care receivers.
 - a Has your team come to know and understand you?
 - b Has your team demonstrated commitment by faithfully and consistently serving you?
 - c Has your team helped you meet any ongoing pressing needs in your life?
4. Review your church's readiness for meeting emergency and catastrophic needs.
5. Survey your men for feedback on your men's team ministry.
6. Address any practical issues and make adjustments to your men's team ministry model.

Reviewing Other Men's Ministry Resources

1. Make a ten year men's ministry plan.

- a Survey the New Testament asking, “What does God want to accomplish in my men?”
 - b Survey the New Testament asking, “What does God want to do through my men?”
2. Develop a step by step plan to achieve these goals over ten years.
3. Review men’s ministry resources on the membership site that will help you achieve your plan.
