

Mobilize Your Men to Meet Every Pressing Need in Your Church

Focus on meeting long term needs first – James 1:27; Isaiah 1:17

The widowed and single parents need more than just kind gestures.

They need to be loved.

Train your men to love like Jesus Christ – John 13:34-35

Personal identification

Commitment

Sacrifice

Give your men a simple and easy, but effective, way to express that love to people with long term needs.

Three hours, one Saturday morning a month

Teams of four

Permanently assigned to a widow, widower, single parent or disabled person

Each team has a team caller to organize projects

Saturday 7 AM to 8 AM – all teams meet together for prayer, bible study and planning

Saturday 8 AM to 10 AM – teams work in home of their care receiver

Each month they return to same person for years-long service.

Need Help Getting Started?

Check out Meeting to Meet Needs and get help starting a men's team ministry in your church.

NewCommandment.org